IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiffs,

v.

ALFONZO WILLIAMS,

Defendant.

CASE NO. CR-13-0764-WHO

DEFENDANT WILLIAMS' MOTIONS IN LIMINE

Defendant Alfonzo Williams hereby moves in limine to preclude the following evidence and testimony. Each such motion is made under the Fifth and Sixth Amendment rights to confrontation, effective defense, due process; Federal Rules of Evidence (FRE) 403, 404(b), 602, 702, 703, 705, 802, and 901; and Rule of Criminal Procedure 16(a)(1)(E) ("Rule 16").

I. General Reservations, Objections and Joinder

A. Reservation of the Right to Respond to Theories of Admissibility

The government has not articulated its theory of admissibility and relevance for a large number of these items. Some are self-evident; others are not. Once the government articulates admissibility, Mr. Williams requests the ability to respond with additional argument and exhibits, if necessary.

1 B. The Government's Bates Numbering Prevents Identification of Exhibits for this
2 Motion

3 The government's exhibit list (Doc. #926) does not use the existing bates numbering from 4 the discovery. Instead, for many items, it uses a new bates numbering system. Grele Decl. pars.
5 2-3. It is impossible to figure out where in the existing discovery the newly-referenced documents
6 are, so they may be reviewed for this Motion. Id. Nor can the subjects of witness testimony be 7 easily discerned. Id. Mr. Williams reserves the right to address these a later date, when that 8 evidence and testimony is discerned.

9 C. The Inability to Secure an Evidence Viewing

10 The defense was unable to view the evidence on the exhibit list prior to this filing. The 11 main obstacle was counsel scheduling, and the government's refusal to make it available in 12 stages. Grele Decl. par. 4. Mr. Williams reserves the right to make further in limine motions
13 once he views the exhibits.
14

15 D. Discovery Disclosed Recently

16 The government has only recently disclosed thousands of pages of discovery containing 17 numerous incidents. Grele Decl. par. 4. The undersigned has not had the opportunity to review
18 those materials to determine what they are. Mr. Williams reserves the right to make further 19 motions once the discovery is fully reviewed and cross-referenced.
20

21 E. Joinder

22 Mr. Williams joins in the Motions in Limine filed by Defendant Antonia Gilton, Doc.
23 967. In addition, he joins motion #2 (jail calls) as they pertain to Mr. Gilton and himself; and 24 motion #7 (use of prior convictions to impeach) as it pertains to Mr. Gilton and himself. Mr.
25 Williams further joins in the Motions in Limine filed by Defendants Barry Gilton and Paul 26 Robeson (Doc. 972).
27

28 ///

1 II. Motions in Limine

2 #1: The Court Must Preclude Evidence and Events Disclosed After Discovery Cutoff

3 Mr. Williams had made numerous applications for a list of criminal acts to be used at trial.
4 Doc. #225, at 2; Doc. # 359, at 5; Doc. #363. On June 5, 2015, the government represented it had 5 disclosed all the acts it intended to use at trial, with the potential exception of one shooting not at 6 issue here. Doc. 409, at 3 (Order describing government's representation). The Court ordered
7 disclosure by October 21, 2015. Doc. # 353.

9 On August 5, 2015, despite its previous assurances, the government released over 50
10 SFPD interactions with the defendants in Group 1, nearly all of which were not in the existing 11 discovery or the indictment. Grele Decl. pars. 6. It continued to release additional material with 12 hundreds of additional SFPD interactions and arrests, involving the remaining defendants and 13 alleged co-conspirators. Grele Decl. par.7.
14

15 In response, Mr. Williams again moved for a list of acts to be used at trial. Doc. 575. It
16 was for acts contained within the discovery released by October 21, 2015. Id. The Court ordered
17 it, in the nature of a bill of particulars. Doc. #758 at 3. Instead, the government provided a 18 generalized list of categories of discovery. Doc. 808. The Court ordered a specified list. The 19 government then provided another list with some specification, but also containing continued
20 generalities. Doc. 851.
21

22 Nearly the entirety of the specified items on the government's list is material not disclosed
23 prior to October 21, 2015 that constitutes police reports clearly available to the government in the 24 6 years it has been investigating this case. Grele Decl. par. 8. It is too close to trial to permit
25 them without the defense suffering great prejudice. Grele Decl. par. 9.

26 Entire events were late disclosed:

- 27 a. The Levexier homicide (exhibits 83-115; disclosed 1.20.16);
28 b. The Barrett homicide (exhibits 552-584; disclosed 1.25.16);

1 c. The silver van robberies (exhibits 608-651; disclosed 1.25.16).

2 d. The 404b Reports (disclosed 11.24.15)

3 e. The Young Statutory Rape court evidence (disclosed 1.4.16)

4 Grele Decl. par. 10.

5 A full list of late-disclosed materials is not available because discovery continues to be 6 produced. In general, any discovery bearing bates numbers BG 086947 and above (we are at BG 7 091469) and any discovery bearing bates with the new bates designations 29, 32 and 33 were 8 produced after the cut-off date. Id. Mr. Williams will need to determine which incidents listed in 9 the exhibit list and witness list correspond to which events and whether they were timely 10 disclosed, and reserves the right to do so.

12 These late-disclosed matters should be precluded.

13 #2: The Court Should Strike and Preclude Evidence of Insufficiently Identified Acts

14 The following are too general and cover too many potential acts to be sufficiently noticed.
15 As a result, the defense has no ability to effectively investigate, and any evidence and testimony
16 pertaining to them should be precluded.

18 a. All Evidence of Young enticing, coercing prostitution: to the extent this is beyond
19 the discovery disclosed after October 21, 2015, it cannot be discerned or determined as no dates
20 or persons are listed. Grele Decl. par. 12.

21 b. Statements by witnesses that Williams enticed, coerced prostitution: this allegation
22 is impossible to determine or investigate without a date, date range or persons involved. Grele 23 Decl. par. 13. There are three potential SFPD incidents in the discovery, none of which are 24 racketeering acts, and no SFPD witnesses are identified who will testify to those. Grele Decl. par.
25 14.

27 c. Evidence from US v. Cheeves: the act itself is a shooting by Elmore and Cheeves.
28 Grele Decl. par. 15. The evidence within the 55 cds of discovery includes numerous incidents

1 within Elmore's entire alfa file (exh. 373); and 27 cds of jail calls containing who knows what
2 discussions of acts and incidents (exh. 391). Any evidence of any act beyond the shooting itself
3 should be precluded.

4 d. Evidence in US v. Walker: This involves a shooting. Grele Decl. par. 16.
5 However, within the discovery are 4 cds of unidentified jail phone calls. (exhs. 429, 430, 440,
6 443). To the extent the "evidence" references additional acts and persons beyond the shooting,
7 they should be precluded.

8 e. Evidence concerning acts by co-conspirators: The government lists 2000 pages of 9 discovery concerning hundreds of incident reports involving the defendants and co-conspirators.
10 It is beyond the capabilities of the defense to investigate and present a defense, or make 11 appropriate motions relating to them. Grele Decl. par. 17.

12 #3. The Court Should Preclude all Law Enforcement Testimony

13 The government was ordered to disclose Henthorn impeachment material by November 14 23, 2015. Doc. 353, at 4. It still has not done so. Grele Decl. par. 18. There may be reasons for 15 this, but the delay precludes effective defense investigation and impeachment. Id.

16 #4. The Court Should Preclude Unspecified Evidence and Testimony Contained within 17 Records that are Insufficient Designated and without Any Showing of Relevance

18 Throughout the exhibit list, the government has listed large categories of evidence as a 19 single exhibit. This is an insufficient designation that prevents a focused motion in limine, 20 confrontation and an effective defense. In the absence of specification, the evidence must be 21 excluded.

22 A. The Jail Calls Must be Precluded Due to Discovery Violation; Insufficient 23 Identification; Lack of Notice; Denial of Confrontation or any Showing of 24 Relevance

25 There are thousands of jail calls scattered throughout the discovery, nearly all of which 26 are calls with loved ones discussing events within families, efforts to obtain counsel or deposits
27
28

1 for the commissary, visits, and the like. Exhibits 128 (Walker calls for a month); 144
2 (unidentified calls); 391 (27 CDs of unidentified calls); 429 (Walker calls for 1 day); 430 (Walker
3 calls for 7 months)¹; 440 (unidentified calls); 443 (unidentified calls); 563 (unidentified calls –
4 may be Heard); 565 (unidentified calls); 583 (Heard calls for 2 weeks); 594 (unidentified calls);
5 648 (unidentified calls); 666 (unidentified calls); 749 (unidentified calls – may be Young); 823
6 (Young calls); 824 (Ferdinand calls); 838 (unidentified calls); 876 (7 calls by Mercado); 882 (3
7 calls by Mercado); 883 (7 calls by Williams); 884 (10 calls, 8 by A Gilton); 885 (5 by Mercado,
8 106 by Williams); 886 (16 by Mercado, 4 by unknown male); 1008 (unidentified calls for 6
9 month period); 1010 (unidentified calls for 2 weeks).² Grele Decl. par. 19.

11 The government was required to make its phone call designations by April 1, 2016. Doc.
12 #831, at 3. They did not do so. Grele Decl. par. 21. Counsel requested this information so as to 13 fashion a proper motion in limine, but no response was forthcoming. Id. For this reason alone, 14 the calls must be precluded.

15 It is often impossible to figure out what phone calls involve which defendants or co-
16 conspirators. This is because the jails do not record specific inmates, but rather the phone 17 number of the recipient, as explained by Mr. Frentzen.³ Grele Decl. par. 22.

18 Even if all the calls had been reviewed (which they have not), Mr. Williams is not going 19 to waste resources detailing why each one is inadmissible when only a small fraction may be 20 used. Mr. A. Gilton has detailed why nearly all are unnoticed statements by co-conspirators and

23 ¹ In the BG discovery notations, one file contains 520 Walker calls.

24 ² Only 391, 749, 838, 876, 882, 883, 884, 885, 886 have the bates numbering used for the past 3
25 years. The “SF” designations for exhibits 1008 and 1010 do not correspond to the state discovery
26 designations. These may or may not contain the bulk of the calls in the discovery (BG 75356).
27 Grele Decl. par. 20.

28 ³ Such identifications do exist because the FBI has to request the specific numbers, so it must have figured out what numbers are tied to whom. Mr. Williams’ discovery motion for this information (Dkt. #362) was denied based on a representation that line sheets were available and searchable (Dkt. #409, at 6-7), which was never true for jail calls.

1 must be stricken. FRE 801(d)(2)(E). The same holds true as they pertain to Mr. Williams, with 2 the added feature that the A. Gilton calls are unnoticed co-conspirator statements as to Mr.
3 Williams. They will also deny Mr. Williams his right to confrontation under the Sixth 4 Amendment.

5 For Mr. Williams, the undersigned believes he has identified 2800 potential calls by him 6 based on the phone numbers called (girlfriends), with an additional potential 530 that are 7 unidentified and 375 that may be other group 1 defendants Mercado, A. Gilton and B. Gilton.
8 Grele Decl. par. 23. It is not apparent what value those calls have as they appear to be 9 discussions with loved ones about counsel, money for commissary, events within his family and 10 the like. No admissions or efforts to further any conspiracy have been identified by the 11 government in any of these. FRE 402. In addition, while Mr. Williams may use vulgar language, 12 and argue with his loved ones or seek their aid, such interactions are inadmissible for any 13 legitimate purpose, and are only offered to cast him in an unfavorable light. FRE 403.
14

16 B. The Phone Downloads Must be Precluded Absent Identification of Relevance;
17 Hearsay; Denial of the Right of Confrontation; and No Designation as Co-
18 Conspirator Statements

19 Another undefined designation is “phone downloads.”⁴ These downloads and reports 20 contain thousands of texts, photos, internet history, and videos. Grele Decl. par. 24. It is 21 impossible to fashion motions without further designations by the government as to what it will 22 actually use. Id. All of it involves statements by co-conspirators that were unnoticed, as 23 discussed by A. Gilton. FRE 801(d)(2)(E). Some involve apparent references to acts not 24 contained in any of the notices (such as pictures of marijuana). FRE 404b.

25 Further, for the most part, the relevance of the material is not apparent. FRE 402. At 26

27 ⁴ Exhibits 507, Error! Main Document Only.574, 582, Error! Main Document Only.595, 28 Error! Main Document Only.656, 657, 658, 663, 796, 815, 819, Error! Main Document
Only.847, 848, 879, 911, 914, Error! Main Document Only.1082-83, 1090, 1091, 1096, 1142.

1 most, it is being used to cast the defendants and their alleged friends or associates in a negative
2 light with pictures of girlfriends in various states of undress; genitalia; sexts between consenting
3 adults; derogatory language; photos taken of drugs off the internet, gangsta rap videos and 4 photos; and general “ghetto culture.” FRE 403; See, e.g. United States v. Curtin, 489 F.3d 935,
5 964 (9th Cir. 2007). Mr. Williams has already noted the difficulty this type of character evidence
6 presents when his jury will under-represent African-Americans by 50%.

8 This problem can be seen in Mr. Williams’ phone downloads (4 exhibits for the same 9 phone; 336 pages of text and internet data in 1 examination alone). His girlfriend is posing for 10 him naked in 4 photos. There is discussion of sexual preferences and enjoyment. There are texts 11 back and forth between Mr. Williams and several girlfriend, and photos. There are evidence of 12 internet searches involving pornography. Grele Decl. par. 25. There are no allegations these 13 have anything to do with this case – there is no evidence they were involved in prostitution or that 14 he was involved in such activities with them. Id. In fact, there are no texts, photos or videos that 15 infer prostitution at all, and no postings on Facebook, Instagram or the like. Id.

16
17 While some of the information, such as the fact of texting and calling around the time of 18 the Sneed homicide (as opposed to some of the content), might be relevant, the vast majority of it
19 is not. They are personal and private. The only use for them appears to get the jury to dislike Mr.
20 Williams because he had several girlfriends at the same time, one of whom was a Caucasian
21 dancer at the Mitchell Brothers club, and was that he was juggling them. Such material is not 22 evidence of any crime and is classically prejudicial. FRE 403. But, the first step is for the 23 government to designate what it intends to use. Perhaps then a more cogent resolution can take 24 place.

26 C. Miscellaneous Designations that are Impossible to Determine Require Preclusion

27 A large number of exhibits could not be determined as the descriptions are too generic 28 and either the materials cannot be easily located or may be buried within a large number of

1 similar evidence. This occurs mainly with unspecified phone records and photographs. Exhibits
2 1-4 and 8 – 40 (these have never been provided); Exhibits 155-65 (photos of defendants and
3 others making symbols); Exhibits 172-177 (jail letters); Exhibits 183-84 (unidentified photos –
4 there are many photos of the garage and residence on that date and in general); Exhibits 189-90, 5 192 (unidentified phone records); Exhibit 199 (GTF folder with 80 pages on CDP – unaware of 6 this disclosure); Exhibit 225 (“Heard” without any description); Exhibit 226 (“Northcutt without 7 any description); Exhibit 227 (gun photos); unnumbered (“parole-Northcutt”); Exhibit 232
8 (“statement”); Exhibit 251 and 254 (statements); Exhibit 257 (Indicia); Exhibit 421
9 (miscellaneous items); Exhibit 433 (photos of documents); Exhibit 937 (photos); 1004 (photos of 10 documents) 1021 (same); 1093; 1094. “Miscellaneous” evidence includes photos of guns and 11 ammunition that is not further described and cannot be addressed. Exhibits 1212-1223.
12

13 All such materials should be precluded.

14 D. The 6 Terabytes of Pole Cam Data Must be Precluded Absent Further
15 Specification

16 The government listed video from the pole cam, which is 6 terabytes of data from a 17 camera that operated for 4 months. Exhibits 110-114, 1186-1189. This is separate from the 18 videos surrounding the night of the Sneed homicide. Grele Decl. par. 26. It is impossible
19 without further designation for the defense to prepare motions and confront this. Id.
20

21 E. The Phone Records Must be Precluded Absent Further Specification

22 The government intends to use the hundreds of thousands of pages of phone records in 23 this case. See e.g. 12334-12242. Each pages contains 50-100 entries. Grele Decl. par. 27.
24 Without some indication how these records are being used, the defense cannot prepare. Id.

25 Some of this information is obviously relevant. As to several phones, CAST reports have 26 been prepared with tacking movements as to critical events. But, as to the remainder, it is 27 impossible to ferret out the significance. The government did produce a list of calls made by Mr.
28

Williams to certain persons during a certain time, but that list does not appear to be an exhibit (at least as far as can be discerned). Id.

F. Exhibits and Testimony Already Ruled Inadmissible Must be Precluded

Certain items have already been ruled in admissible. Exhibits 196-97 reference the SF Sheriff Department classification documents, which Mr. Williams supposes are here in case the Circuit overturns the Court. The Court has already ruled the search of Mr. Williams residence in 1997 to be inadmissible. Doc. 891. Yet, items from that search are listed. The government lists a statement of Mr. Williams. Exhibit 904. All such statements have been ruled in admissible. Doc. 891. The Court has limited the CDP gang testimony. Doc. 927. Yet, there are witnesses listed who will testify to the precluded subject areas. See Underseal Witness List, SFPD officers listed as discussing CDP. And, there are entire gang alpha files, or GTF files, listed on the exhibit list, as well as a CDP roster authored by SFPD and the FBI, apparently. Exhibits 1203-1209. For what purpose is not clear. Such rosters and diagrams are not admissible given the limitations on the testimony that is permitted.

#5. The Court Should Strike Testimony and Evidence of 1997 Drug Charge Against Mr. Williams; Strike Overt Act Allegation 17a; and Preclude Impeachment with Conviction of Accessory.

This alleged overt act concerns an observation of Mr. X and his travels throughout the area selling drugs over several days' time in April, 1977. At some point, officers observed Mr. Williams in X's car; he then ran from officers as they approached. As he ran, he threw a small bag (golf ball size) with a white substance the officers then retrieved. The officers then searched his apartment at 1458 Grove St. and found a larger quantity of white substance. Later analysis by the SFPD lab determined the substance to be cocaine. Grele Decl., par. 28. (bg 8050-59).

The case was resolved prior to preliminary hearing, without any confrontation of witnesses against him. Mr. Williams agreed to a conviction of accessory after the fact, without any admission of involvement with drugs. He was granted probation. Grele Decl., par. 29.

1 (bg8077-85). It remains his only criminal charge, and only conviction.

2 The evidence from the search of Mr. Williams' apartment has been suppressed. Doc.
3 891. It is assumed the evidence the government intends to use concerns the small bag tossed by 4 Mr. Williams, and the "indica" not associated with the apartment, which consists of a driver's
5 license and $309. Grele Decl., par. 28.

6 It is believed Exhibit 337 is photographs of indicia found at the apartment as well as Mr.
7 Williams' person. Grele Decl., par. 30. (bg 8043-48). This is inadmissible. Even the "indica" in 8 his pocket should be suppressed as "indicia" are for the purpose of tying an individual to his 9 residence, which is irrelevant here because the residence search is inadmissible. FRE 403.

10 Exhibit 338 and 340 are the lab reports (bg 8062-63). Grele Decl., par. 31. Exhibit 339
11 (bg8049) is the "ROI", which is a report of investigation by the District Attorney's investigator 12 that includes the amount of cocaine, the original charges, and the charges which were resolved.
13 Id. None are admissible, as they are clearly testimonial. Melendez-Diaz v. Massachusetts, 557
14 U.S. 305 (2009). The ROI is hearsay and irrelevant. Bullcoming v. New Mexico, 131 S.Ct. 2705
15 (2011). Neither the investigator nor the criminalist (Madden) are on the witness list; in fact, no
16 criminalist testimony was offered in the expert disclosures as to this evidence. Grele Decl., par.
17 31.

18 A larger difficulty is that the criminalist who conducted the testing, Ms. Madden, was 19 found to have taken and used drugs during her tenure. DA Kamala Harris dismissed all of 20 Madden's cases where retesting was unavailable. Grele Decl., par. 32 and exhibit A (AUSA 21 sentencing memorandum in US v. Madden). There is no reason why this Court should do 22 anything different.

23 Typical of Ms. Madden's work, the SFPD lab reports are unreliable on their face, and 24 reflect the fruits of the illegal search. Evid. R. 702. They make no distinction between the small 25 bag and the remainder of the alleged cocaine that was illegally seized. We do not even know if

1 the small bag was analyzed. Given the description of a golf ball size, it is impossible that it
2 constituted 13 ounces of cocaine base (358 grams). In fact, the ROI report states that the total
3 seized was 358 grams, as does the police report (bg8059). Grele Decl., par. 32.

4 Confounding matters, the government has declined to provide all the photographs or 5 property reports pertaining to this incident. Grele Decl., par. 33. As a result, it is impossible to 6 determine whether the small bag is what was examined and tested. The refusal to provide clear
7 Rule 16 material requires the incident be precluded.

9 Mr. Williams' plea transcript (exh. 341; bg 8077-85) is inadmissible. Not only was the 10 plea the result of the illegal search, it contains no admission to any drug sales or gang-related
11 activity – it is a plea to an accessory after the fact with an individual not associated with any CDP
12 or gang activity. Cal. Pen. Code §32 (conceal or aids another with intend to assist in avoiding 13 arrest). There is no factual basis for the plea given, or a stipulation by Mr. Williams that one
14 exists (only by his counsel, without Mr. Williams' agreement). Grele Decl. par. 34 and exhibit
15 (bg 8077-85). Accessory after the fact is a separate crime, without any tether to the crime
16 involved. United States v. Vidal, 504 F.3d 1072, 1077 & 1081 (9th Cir. 2007).

18 The government is therefore limited to testimony of the observation, the flight and the 19 small bag with an unknown substance in it. This apparent possession of a small, undetermined 20 amount of what might or might not be drugs does not rise to the level of a racketeering act under 21 21 U.S.C. 841(a)(1). This act was 5 years before any other alleged overt act in this case. There is 22 no indication in the discovery that CDP existed at this time, or that Mr. Williams was a part of it.
23 No other alleged co-conspirators were involved. In fact, as discussed in relation to the SFPD
24 records subpoena, the only recorded record of CDP organization and structure omitted mention of 25 Mr. Williams. This is insufficient to constitute an overt act, and too prejudicial and remote to be 26 admissible. FRE 403. Even if it were noticed as 404b evidence (which it was not), it would nto b
27 admissible. See United States v. Vizcarra-Martinez, 66 F.3d 1006, 1015 (9th Cir. 1995); 28

1 United States v. Hill, 953 F.2d 452, 457 (9th Cir. 1991).

2 #6. The Court Should Preclude Allegations, Evidence and Testimony of “Pimping”
3 against Mr. Williams

4 Allegations of racketeering acts must be acts that satisfy the elements of the statute.
5 United States v. Ruggiero, 726 F.2d 913, 920 (2d Cir.), cert. denied, 469 U.S. 831 (1984).
6 “Pimping” is not a racketeering act. “Pimping” is defined as living with or obtaining support
7 from those engaged in prostitution. Cal. Pen. Code §266h. It is not a federal crime, nor is it
8 specified in the racketeering statute as a crime that constitutes an enterprise or predicate act. 18
9 U.S.C. §1961. By contrast, there are federal statutes that prohibit certain types of conduct
10 relating to the encouragement or coercion of sex acts by others. Those are conduct relating to 11 minors and mail (or internet), and transportation across state lines (the “White Slavery Act” or 12 “Mann Act”). 18 U.S.C. section 2242(a) and (b). These are predicate acts under section 1961, 13 and have been charged as such in the indictment. Doc. 139, par. 15c. They do not involve the 14 profiteering or benefit elements of “pimping”, and require additional elements such as coercion, 15 minors or state lines.
16

17 A. The Language in the Indictment Must be Stricken

18 The allegation in the indictment cites the correct statute. However, the parenthetical
19 description is “coercion and enticement of a person to engage in prostitution”, when the statute
20 itself requires additional elements. That language, therefore, is misleading as to elements 21 required, improper and cannot be amended without variance, so must be stricken.
22

23 B. Overt Acts 17b, 17ee, 17gg and as Described in the Notice are Improperly Alleged 24 and Must be Stricken and Precluded

25 For the same reason, several related overt act allegations cannot be used as predicate acts
26 for the conspiracy. See Doc. 139, pars. 17b (Young allegation re minor); 17ee (same); 17gg
27 (Robeson). The same difficulty arises from all the related allegations in the government’s Notice.
28

1 (Doc. 851). For allegations against Defendants Robeson and Young, the government has alleged 2 sexual acts with minors as “pimping.” Doc. 851. That is incorrect, and such allegations should 3 be stricken. As with the allegation as to co-conspirator Parker, all three fail to allege the federal 4 jurisdictional elements of section 2242(b). They are, therefore, defective as racketeering acts, 5 proof of a pattern of racketeering, and cannot form the basis for any findings of conspiracy to 6 form an enterprise through the use of such acts.⁵

8 C. The Allegations Against Mr. Williams Must be Stricken and Precluded

9 As to allegation in the government’s notice concerning Mr. Williams, it is equally 10 insufficient. The government’s allegation is that Mr. Williams, on unspecified occasions, “has 11 been engaged in persuading, inducing, enticing and coercing individuals to engage in 12 prostitution.” Doc. #851 at 2. The government indicated it would prove these allegations by 13 means of “statements by witnesses.” Id. The allegation uses the language of section 2242(a)
14 (“persuade, induce, entice, or coerce”), but without the allegation of interstate travel or use of a 15 minor. It cannot be a racketeering act and should be precluded as such. United States v.
16 Ruggiero, 726 F.2d 913, 920 (2d Cir.), cert. denied, 469 U.S. 831 (1984).⁶

18 Because these are alleged overt acts and not predicate acts, the Court must engage in an 19 analysis of whether they are admissible as evidence in furtherance of the conspiracy as against 20 any individual defendant, and then must craft appropriate limiting instructions even if they are.
21 To date, there is no evidence that these alleged acts furthered anything having to do with the 22 alleged enterprise, or even the other coconspirators. It is submitted that given the nature of the 23 allegations and the conflicting evidence, the allegation of “pimping” too prejudicial to be 24

25 ⁵ This is in contrast to the allegation of an overt acts 17dd and. 17ff, and counts 16, 17, 21 and 22.

26 ⁶ As noted above, there are two instances of Mr. Williams engaging with adult prostitutes on the 27 street in San Francisco that may be described as evidence of coercion. Grele Decl. par. 14.
28 However, they are not in the government’s Notice, not included in the incidents alleged in the 404b Notice, and for which no witnesses are listed. It is assumed they are not being used at trial.

1 permitted. FRE 403. The government should stick to the statutory definitions and not wander
2 into generalized allegations that are salacious character evidence.

3 #7. Preclude Expert Testimony of Agent Parker as to Element of Coercion

4 Because Mr. Williams did not receive notice of the allegations he was involved in 5 coercion of prostitution until after the October 21, 2015 cutoff date; Agent Parker's expert
6 disclosure (Doc. #752-1 at 23-25) did not identify any evidence in this case that she reviewed or 7 what events or persons it would relate to, nor has there been any disclosures as to that evidence
8 review; and, the government did not offer Parker's testimony as relevant to anyone's activity
9 other than Young or Robeson (Doc. 725), there was insufficient notice that this proposed 10 testimony would be used against him. Mr. Williams, therefore, joined in the motion by Robeson 11 (Doc. 645), and reserved his rights to challenge further that proposed disclosure and to offer his 12 own expert opinions.

14 Of particular concern here, and not discussed by Defendant Robeson, is Agent Parker's 15 proposed testimony about the pimp/prostitute relationship and methods and means of control, and 16 that the relationship is necessarily coercive. Id. at 24-25. As discussed above, "pimping" does 17 not involve coercion as a matter of law. Rather, "coercion" is a factual element of the crime act
18 the government needs to prove against the defendants as part of a pattern of racketeering. 18
19 U.S.C. 2242(a). It is improper to offer expert testimony that an element of a crime, overt act or 20 predicate act is established in this manner. Congress has determined what the elements of a 21 crime are; the courts have established what must be proven. Essentially, the government intends 22 to present testimony that Mr. Williams is a pimp, and that, therefore, the element of coercion of 23 sex activity is established. This is improper. United States v. Mejia, 545 F.3d 179 (2d Cir. 2008)
24 (cannot shortcut required proofs with expert testimony that they exist); FRE Rule 704(b).

27 The Court should be aware that there may be a real life example in this case. There was 28 preliminary hearing testimony in state court proceedings that Mr. Williams' girlfriend traveled to 1 Las Vegas, but she did so on her own, with her friends, and met up with Mr. Williams there.

2 Grele Decl. par. 35. Even if the purpose was to involve prohibited sex acts there (for which there
3 is no evidence), the government would still have to establish that Mr. Williams encouraged,
4 enticed or coerced it. The government's approach would allow it to skip that step with expert
5 testimony that because Mr. Williams was a pimp, he must have coerced the activity. That is 6 exactly what expert testimony cannot do.

8 #8. Strike Evidence and Testimony of Act of Witness Intimidation, Overt Act 17w;
Request for Hearing

9 It is alleged that several CDP members (not the Group 1 defendants), stood up as an 10 identification witness testified during a trial where Mr. Heard was the defendant. There is no
11 dispute that Mr. Heard's attorney, Safire, arranged the stand up with the young men in a 12 misguided effort to demonstrate that the Caucasian witness could not distinguish between young 13 African-American men. It was the central issue at the trial. There was a full investigation and 14 hearing in the state trial court (including interview with the trial judge as a witness), and findings
15 by that court and the appellate court to this effect, that must be credited by this Court. Grele
16 Decl., par. 36. (exhibits from state court inquiry; Safire statements; findings).

18 Given this record, and the absence of any contrary evidence of attempted intimidation, the 19 overt act must be stricken and the testimony and exhibits (exhs. 325-336) precluded.
20 Alternatively, a hearing is required with a sufficient showing of some connection to the 21 conspiracy allegations beyond what is in the discovery before it can be admitted. Not every act
22 by alleged CDP members is one done in furtherance of the conspiracy, and this one has strong 23 evidence to the contrary. It is so prejudicial that its admission will prevent a fair trial. FRE 403.
24 It is also highly likely to devolve into a separate trial about the attorney's conduct, and involve
25 testimony from the judge, who gave a recorded statement. The undue consumption of time for a 26 collateral matter that is overly prejudicial is improper. FRE 403.
27
28

1 #9. Preclude Admission or Display of Gang Validation Materials/Packets

2 The government lists several gang validation packets (alpha files) as evidence. Exh. 373;
3 Exhs. 1206-1209. Although the new discovery designations prevent itemized objections, the old
4 discovery included a face sheet for “validation” and then every police report or traffic violation
5 mentioning each subject. Others are listed as “GTF” files “for reference”. Exhs. 199-211. Most 6 of these allegations were never noticed in the indictment or the government’s notice of acts (at 7 least the specified acts). Grele Decl. par. 37. CDP charts are also offered. Exhibits 1203-1205.
8 None of it is dated nor is authorship or authentication evident, including the validations done by 9 an unknown officer at an unknown time. Id.

11 Even if the defense could figure out what within this mountain of late-disclosed reports
12 the government seeks to introduce, it would still be inadmissible. This Court has already ruled, 13 and the government has conceded, that such validations aren’t admissible. Doc. 891. Rather,
14 membership and structure will be established through lay witness testimony. The fact that 15 several reports list individuals as seen together, or what the particular activities were, can only 16 come in through the testimony of those who saw them, not the hearsay of someone testifying as 17 to the reports. Any statements therein, and any acts described are are un-noticed. FRE
18 801(d)(2)(E); FRE 404b; Doc. 851. Further, the spectacle of a witness having a stack of reports
19 and referencing them as the “gang”, “GTF” or “alpha” files is simply too prejudicial. FRE 403.

21 There is another difficulty with “alpha” files. According to SFPD and the government, 22 they are concocted when there is a prosecution, not kept as a regular business compilation. And,
23 they change over time, depending upon the stages of prosecution. Grele Decl. par. 38. This is 24 why, for example, Ms. Taylor could represent that the defense had such files when the only thing 25 the defense had was the sheriff department classification documents. Id. Then, months later, the 26 government produced a different packet, the one with the validation and police reports, and 27 represented those were the alpha files now. Id. Thus, introduction of such materials will devolve
28

1 into testimony about what the packets constitute, and why, and may even involve presentation of 2 testimony about what was in the discovery at what time so as to establish that such records are a
3 litigation-driven compilation that did not exist until August of 2015, rather than actual gang
4 records. The undue consumption of time on collateral matters precludes admission. FRE 403.

5 #10. Preclude Rap Lyrics and Videos

6 Mr. Williams has already extensively briefed the need for expert testimony regarding rap
7 lyrics and will not repeat it here. As the Court noted, there is a threshold issue concerning
8 admissibility of the rap videos and lyrics in the first place. Incredibly, the government announced
9 on April 1, 2016 that it was seeking introduction of an entirely new set of videos not previously 10 noticed, along with lyrics not previously produced. Grele Decl. par. 39. The undersigned still has 11 not seen them, and therefore cannot address them here. Id. This is outrageous. For this reason 12 alone, they should be precluded.

14 In any event, they are all inadmissible. None of the rap evidence concerns lyrics or videos
15 made by any defendants. Grele Decl. par. 40. No court has permitted the rap evidence 16 contemplated here, and this Court should reject it as well.

18 The government's stated purpose in showing the videos and offering the lyrics is that they 19 are evidence of the conspiracy. It did not include any rap lyrics or statements in videos in its FRE
20 801(d)(2)(E) co-conspirator statement disclosure; did not include any referenced activity therein
21 in its 404(b) notice; and did not include any such allegations arising from or relating to the rap
22 evidence in its racketeering notice (Doc. 851). For this reason, they should be precluded.

23
24 Rap videos are inherently prejudicial. Boyd v. City & County of San Francisco, 576 F.3d 25 938, 949 (9th Cir.2009) (rap evidence highly prejudicial and inadmissible; lyrics advocating 26 prostitution); See State v. Skinner, 218 N.J. 496, 95 A.3d 236 (N.J.2014); Hannah v. State, 420
27 Md. 339, 23 A.3d 192, 204–05 (2011). Experts have universally condemned the use of such 28 videos to prejudice juries. See, e.g., Andrea L. Dennis, Poetic \(In\)Justice ? Rap Music Lyrics as

1 Art, Life, and Criminal Evidence, 31 Colum. J.L. & Arts 1, 22 (2007) (“gangsta” is a subgenre of 2 rap that “purports to reflect life in the inner city,” draws on devices such as metaphor,
3 braggadocio, and exaggeration for effect, and uses words that may be offensive and prone to 4 misinterpretation by jurors and courts unfamiliar with rap). The reasons for this are well-
5 established. Holmes v. State, 306 P.3d 415, 423 (Nev.2013) (Saitta, J., dissenting).

6 The material here is no different from that which has been condemned above. As 7 Professor Kubrin has opined, the videos are well within the standard Gangsta Rap genre and 8 present nothing out of the ordinary for the art form. Dkt. #830, exhibit G [disclosure and CV];
9 Dkt. #743. The displays of guns and drugs; discussion of prostitution; and claiming an area, are 10 all well within that genre. Id; Kubrin, Charis E. and Erik Nielson. “Rap on Trial.” Race and 11 Justice 4:185-211 (2014) (previously submitted to the Court).

13 Those instances where rap evidence has been admitted have required the material be 14 tethered to the individual defendant – lyrics the defendant himself wrote about the crime alleged.
15 Holmes v. State, 306 P.3d 415, 418 (Nev.2013) (Defendant’s own lyric about his robbing);
16 United States v. Herron, No. 10–CR–615, 2014 WL 1871909, *2–*3 (E.D.N.Y. May 8, 2014)
17 (show Defendant identifying as a member of the Gowanus-based Murderous Mad Dogs, 18 conversing with alleged gang associates, firing weapons, vowing retaliation after an alleged 19 associate is shot by a rival, and bragging that other people will do his bidding); United States v.
20 Wilson, 493 F.Supp.2d 484, 488–89 (E.D.N.Y.2006) (Defendant’s own rap lyrics about the 21 crime). None of that is present here. Even then, that may not be enough to render it admissible
22 given the ensuing prejudice. State v. Skinner, 218 N.J. 496 (N.J.2014).

23 24 25 #11. Preclude Gary Owens Phone Calls Evidence

26 Within the Levexier homicide evidence is reference to phone calls from inmate Gary 27 Owens to his mother and girlfriend. Exhibits 91-94. Although it has been impossible to identify 28 this material in the existing Levexier discovery, that discovery did contain police reports

1 describing these conversations. It appears Owens' girlfriend told Owens that her friend told her
2 that another friend said that "Alfonzo and them" paid Esau Ferdinand to kill Leveaux, and that 3 his mother, in a separate conversation, repeated this rumor. Grele Decl. par. 41.

4 It is impossible to determine how such rank hearsay will ever be permitted. If the 5 government has witnesses with first-hand knowledge who can testify to those facts, so be it. But,
6 even if they do, the Owens calls aren't admissible.

7 #12. Preclude Testimony and Evidence of Car Tracking

8 The government intends to use car tracking done of Mr. Williams Acura and his 9 girlfriend's Mercedes vehicles. Exhibits 1230-31. The evidence should be precluded because of 10 discovery violations and the absence of any expert testimony concerning the devices and their 11 accuracy and reliability.

12 Initially, Mr. Williams moved for discovery on the devices – their repair history, 13 reliability history, the manuals involved and how they were affixed to the vehicles. Docs. 479 and 14 573 ("the reports, correspondence, memoranda, information as to how the data was obtained and 15 from where, and the data for vehicle tracking"; "what device was used; how it got there; the 16 reliability data; etc). This was denied as not specific enough. Doc. 659. It was also impossible to 17 review the raw data, and some of the tracking was not disclosed. Discovery of this information 18 was denied as well. Id.

19 Subsequently, in a series of attempts to request the specific information as to the devices, 20 including their repair history, how they were affixed, how they are supposed to be used, and the 21 raw data, the government refused to provide anything. Grele Decl. par. 42. Luckily, an expert was 22 able to use programs he possessed to hack the data and retrieve some of the information. Grele 23 Decl. par. 43. As a result, Mr. Williams was able to discern that the devices are regular,
24 commonly-known devices discussed in cases and whose schematics and design have been fully 25 divulged on the internet for years. Beagle Declaration. The devices require they be affixed to the

1 cars, either internally in the engine compartment or within the frame. A motion to suppress will 2 ensue. United States v. Jones, 132 S.Ct. 945 (2012).

3 The review also discloses that the defense has only four days relevant raw data on the 4 Acura. Tracking data from July 29, 2010 to August 25, 2010 is missing. Thus, most of that 5 report cannot be reviewed for accuracy. A large section of the Acura report is also missing –
6 from August 30, 2010 to October 20, 2010. Beagle Declaration.

8 In examining some of the tracking data, it is readily apparent that not all the data was 9 disclosed. Id. There are no reports concerning the accuracy of these devices such as repair 10 history; specifications as to standard error rates; manuals as to how to use them properly and 11 reports as to how they were used. Beagle Declaration. The denial of basic tools to discover and 12 confront the evidence against him, and to challenge it, violates Mr. Williams’ rights to 13 confrontation and effective counsel, and prevents effective pretrial litigation as to admissibility
14 under FRE 702.

16 Furthermore, the government did not list any expert to testify as to the devices, how they 17 work, what it means to have “stops” at certain locations, whether they are reliable and how 18 accurate they may be. Without such foundational testimony, the tracking reports are 19 inadmissible.

20 #13. Preclude Admission of Reports

21 The exhibit list contains numerous lab, forensic and police reports that are being sought to 22 be introduced as evidence rather than for reference.⁷ It is now well-established that admission of 23 such reports violates the right to confrontation and are hearsay. Melendez-Diaz v. Massachusetts, 24

25 ⁷ Exhibits 45, 46, 48, 57, 60, 83, 107, 108, 140, 214, 228, 237, 265, 298, 338, 339, 340, 343, 345, 26 348, 350, 352, 353, 356, 357, 370, 392, 395, 398, 416, 425, 450, 451, 454, 455, 500, 501, 518,
27 525, 526, 629, 663, 694, 734, 741, 759, 772, 777, 841, 866, 911, 914, 932, 940, 941, 955, 960,
28 966, 967, 973, 982, 983, 984, 990, 995-97, 1005-1007, 1012-13, 1024-25, 1048, 1050, 1055, 1059, 1064, 1080, 1082, 1083, 1108, 1203-1209, 1217, 1222-23, 1230-31, 1233.

1 557 U.S. 305 (2009). Even testimony by others as to the reports is improper. Bullcoming v. New 2 Mexico, 131 S.Ct. 2705 (2011).

3 #14. Preclude Admission of Rule 404(b) Evidence

4 In its November 24, 2015 notice of evidence it intends to offer at trial pursuant to Federal 5 Rule of Evidence 404(b), the government listed numerous acts having nothing to do with Mr.
6 Williams. It also listed San Francisco Police Department Incident Report number 070124561.
7 Grele Decl. par. 44. None of these are admissible Rule 404b evidence as to Group 1 defendants.

9 As to Incident Report number 070124561, SFPD officers responded to San Francisco
10 General Hospital to investigate the shooting of Leon Parker and Floyd Barrow. Upon arriving at 11 the hospital, the officers searched Mr. Williams (illegally), and found nothing. There were 12 “about twenty to twenty-five unknown black males” in the area. About twenty minutes later, a 13 “citizen”, Mr. S, approached a police officer at the hospital and reported finding a handgun in the 14 parking lot of the hospital, on top of his car’s tire. The firearm was not connected to Mr.
15 Williams, or any anyone other than Mr. S.
16

17 Evidence of a prior bad act may be admissible when it is introduced for a purpose other 18 than to prove that a defendant acted in conformity therewith. Fed. R. Evid. 404(b); United States
19 v. Luna, 21 F.3d 874, 878 (9th Cir. 1994). For example, evidence of a prior act can be admissible
20 to prove motive, opportunity, intent, preparation, plan, knowledge, identity, or absence of mistake
21 or accident. Fed. R. Evid. 404(b); Luna, 21 F.3d at 878. Before such evidence is admissible, 22 however, the government must establish that (1) the prior act tends to prove a material issue in 23 the action, (2) the prior act is not "too remote" from the charged offense, (3) the prior act is 24 similar to the charged offense, and (4) the defendant committed the prior act. United States v.
25 Montgomery, 150 F.3d 983, 1000 (9th Cir.), cert. denied, 119 S. Ct. 267 (1998); see also United 26 States v. Chea, 231 F.3d 531, 534 (9th Cir. 2000). "If the evidence meets this test 27
28 under Rule 404(b), the court must then decide whether the probative value is substantially

1 outweighed by the prejudicial impact under Rule 403.” Chea, 231 F.3d at 534.

2 The incident at San Francisco General fails two of the four requirements. First, the 3 government cannot establish that any of the “twenty to twenty-five black males” possessed the 4 firearm, much less Mr. Williams. Even if the government could connect Mr. Williams, the 5 incident would not tend to prove any material issue in the case. Evidence that Mr. Williams’
6 possessed (apparently lawfully) a firearm on one occasion not connected to any criminal act by 7 Mr. Williams does nothing to prove Mr. Williams intent to participate in or knowledge of the 8 charged racketeering conspiracy. And, the probative value of this incident would be so slight that 9 the Court would be bound to exclude it under Rule 403.

11 The rest of the government’s proffered 404(b) materials are unrelated to the Group 1 12 defendants. Therefore, the incidents are not admissible at their trial.

13 #15. Preclude Unidentified “Indicia”; Evidence from Searches

14 Throughout the exhibit list, the government identifies various items secured in searches of 15 the defendant’s residences and those of alleged co-conspirators. Unfortunately, Mr. Williams 16 cannot discern where within the existing discovery much of this material may be found. For 17 instance, exhibit 116 lists items found at the Carmichael residence as “indicia”; exhibit 120 is 18 photographs of the search; and exhibits 119 and 183 are photographs of the search at 1458 Grove.

19 a. Evidence from the December 15, 2011 search of the rear downstairs apartment at 20 1458 Grove includes a scale with undefined “white substance”, ammunition, and a small amount 21 of marijuana. Grele Decl. par. 45. It is reported that Mr. Williams was not residing there at the 22 time, and was not present. Id. The only tie to anyone in this case is that Mr. Gordon was seen 23 entering the 1548 Grove St. residence, but which part is unclear. Id. No lab reports verify any 24 drugs. Evidence with such a tenuous connection to anyone involved is too prejudicial, 25 particularly as against Mr. Williams. FRE 403.

1 b. Evidence obtained from the searches conducted surrounding the October 6, 2009
2 witness intimidation incident. “Indicia” without further identification are listed. Exhibit 334
3 (from 1458 Grove St.). Other references are to “gang letters” (exh. 334); CDs taken from a
4 residence that may contain anything (Exh. 334); a scale that is unidentified (exh. 335); a DVD
5 that may contain anything (Exh. 334). Without existing bates numbering, and examination of this 6 evidence, it is too difficult to tease out what this material is or may contain. Grele Decl. par. 46.

8 c. Evidence of a gun found during Mr. Williams’ arrest. Several cars stopped at a 9 gas station. One of cars, not Mr. Williams’, contained a firearm. Exhibit 1037 (photos). This 10 possession is not linked to Mr. Williams or any defendant, and is not one of the noticed acts.
11 Grele Decl. par. 47. It is inadmissible. FRE 403.

12 d. Evidence Mr. Williams’ possessed $6810 currency when arrested. Apparently, the 13 government wishes to introduce this, although it’s not clear. Exhibit 937 (photos from arrest); 14 Exhibit 1143. Grele Decl. par. 48. There is no tie to any criminal activity. It appears the 15 government’s argument is that because he was unemployed, such monies must have come from 16 illegal efforts of some kind. This is improper and prejudicial. FRE 403.

17
18 e. Evidence from the rear apartment at 1458 Grove St after Mr. Williams’ arrest.
19 The government listed “indicia” and money orders as evidence from this search. Exhibits 1135, 20 1138. What is being considered is not apparent. Grele Decl. par. 49. As stated above, indicia of 21 residence such as government notices may be admissible, but evidence of pornographic
22 magazines, traffic violations, or money untethered to any criminal activity is not. FRE 403.

23
24 #16. Preclude Admission of the SFPD Search of Mr. Williams’ Phone

25 While the Court ruled that phone download by SFPD was subject to the good faith
26 exception (Doc. 891), there remained the matter of establishing how the download was 27 accomplished by whom, under what circumstances and what device was used and how. Id.
28 (ordering disclosure upon request). None of that material has been forthcoming. Grele Decl. par.

1 50. It is impossible to determine whether it was done correctly, conduct expert examination of 2 the methodology, or prepare for examination of the government's expert. FRE 705 requires these 3 disclosures, as does Rule 16 and the Confrontation and Effective Defence clauses.

4 #17. Preclude Admission of Credit Reports

5 The government has listed credit reports for Mr. Williams and his brother. Exhibits 1225-
6 29. It appears this is an effort to argue that Mr. Williams had not viable means of income. Or, it
7 could be to use identification of records such as phone numbers or addresses. This is improper
8 and such inferences from data found on a credit report are unreliable. FRE 403.

10 Further, credit reports are inadmissible. Fed.R.Evid. 803(6); Rowland v. American 11 General Finance, 340 F.3d 187, 195 (4th Cir. 2003) ("the assurance of accuracy does not extend 12 to the information itself, and the fact that it may be recorded with scrupulous accuracy is of no 13 avail."). Credit reporting agencies do not create or record the data they report. Instead, they 14 amalgamate data from "[r]oughly 30,000 data furnishers, including creditors, collections 15 agencies, public offices, and others." See FTC Report to Congress, January 2015.⁸ Even if they 16 could be said to be reliable, no authentication is offered here. FRE 801(d)(2)(A) & (B).
